

Catalogue of the Autographed Posters, Playbills, Programs, Stools, and Guitars
in the Archives of the Embassy Theatre Foundation

In addition to the important collection of more than 600 photographs of vaudevillians inscribed to Bud Berger, the archives of the Embassy Theatre Foundation also hold more than 300 posters, playbills, programs, show files, stools, autograph books, and even guitars signed by the stars and casts of shows that have played at the Embassy Theatre over the past forty years, ranging from classic and current Broadway shows to acrobatic groups, choral ensembles, dance shows, ballet, stand-up comedians, rock bands, country singers, travel films, silent films, theatre organists, and so on. Classic and much-loved Broadway shows playing at the

Embassy Theatre include The King and I, South Pacific, West Side Story, Damn Yankees, Annie, Camelot, Cats, Fiddler on the Roof, Grease, Gypsy, Mame, Kiss Me Kate, Annie Get Your Gun, Man of La Mancha, Les Misérables, Jesus Christ Superstar, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, The Sound of Music, My Fair Lady, and Peter Pan, but the theatre has also presented such modern and in some cases controversial shows as Beauty and the Beast, Blast, Mama Mia!, Jersey Boys, Rent, Sweeney Todd, Spring Awakening, The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas, Hair, Ain't Misbehavin', Miss Saigon, Avenue Q, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, The Drowsy Chaperone, Cabaret, Chicago, Legally Blonde, A Chorus Line, Evita, Evil Dead: The Musical, Grease, Sister Act, Side by Side by Sondheim, Sunset Boulevard, Menopause: The Musical, Ghost Brothers of Darkland County, American Idiot: The Groundbreaking Broadway Musical, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee: A New Musical Comedy, and many others.

Comedians have been a regular feature at the Emboyd and Embassy Theatre since the days of long-time stage manager Bud Berger, and many of their pictures appear among the 600+ inscribed photographs. In more recent years, they have been joined on the Embassy Theatre's stage by Jerry Seinfeld, Jim Gaffigan, Bill Engvall, Gabriel Iglesias, Rodney Carrington, Larry the Cable Guy, Red Green, Friends of Bob and Tom, Tim Allen, George Carlin, David Brenner, and Carrot Top, sometimes on several occasions. All of them have contributed to the archive by signing their posters and in some case the stools they used on stage.

Of course the Embassy Theatre has also been a popular venue for jazz and vocal ensembles, rock bands, and country music singers as varied as Ray Boltz, George Jones, Bryan Adams,

Woman, Tap Dogs, Barrage Vagabond Tales, Riverdance, Movin' Out, Michael Flatley's Lord of the Dance, Fosse, Footloose: The Musical, Break: The Urban Funk Spectacular, Bob Fosse's Dancin', Balé Folclórico da Bahia Carnaval 2000, and multiple appearances of Stomp. The archive preserves

Alice in Chains, Lynyrd Skynyrd, The Monkees, The Moody Blues, REO Speedwagon, The Soft Parade: A Tribute to the Doors, Styx, Weird Al Yankovic, ZZ Top, Diane Schurr, Jim Brickman, Straight No Chaser, Brit Floyd, Jamey Johnson, Goo Goo Dolls, Joe Bonamassa, Harry Connick Jr., Gordon Lightfoot, Willie Nelson, The Oak Ridge Boys, Brad Paisley, Loretta Lynn, and many others. On several occasions, these artists enhanced the archive by leaving behind not only signed posters and stools but also signed guitars (this one autographed by Sheryl Crowe, Michael Bolton, Brad Paisley, Chris Cagle, Weird Al Yankovic, and Anne Murray).

Magicians, acrobatic groups, and dance shows alike have been popular at the theatre from its opening days. Modern superstar magician David Copperfield has appeared on several occasions, and Cirque Dreams has presented three spectacular shows, Jungle Fantasy, Illumination, and Holidaze, contributing to the archive on each occasion a poster signed by the cast. Current dance ensembles continue to delight Embassy Theatre audiences on a regular basis, including Celtic posters for each performance, most of them signed by the cast.

The traditional arts, film, and of course the Embassy's famous Grande Page theatre organ have been regularly represented at the Embassy Theatre over the years by visiting ensembles such as the Vienna Choir Boys, Moulin Rouge: The Ballet, the A Cappella Choir of Concordia University (Nebraska), the Purdue University Glee Club, the Pennsylvania Ballet, and the State Ballet Theatre of Russia performing Swan Lake; regular appearances of the Fort Wayne Philharmonic, which is resident at the Embassy Theatre; film series, including travel films, filmed operas, and revivals such as the 40th anniversary tour of Exodus; silent films accompanied by the Grande Page, featuring such stars as Lon Chaney in The Hunchback of Notre Dame and The Phantom of the Opera, Buster Keaton in The General, Harold Lloyd in Safety Last, Rudolph Valentino in The Eagle, and many others;

and the annual concert in memory of the Embassy Theatre's long-time organist, Buddy Nolan, who was a leader in the efforts to save the theatre from destruction in the 1970s. All of these events are represented by posters and programs in the archive.

Posters in the archive range in size from 11" x 8.5" to 36" x 24", but most of them are the standard 17" x 11" or 22" x 14". Each poster is preserved in an acid-free, lignin-free buffered folder. The catalogue record is attached to the outside of the folder, and the folders are housed in archival print boxes.

Embassy Theatre: Show Call Rosters

Date(s), if any:

8 January–19
February 2002

Dimensions and pagination as applicable: 11" x 8.5"

Description:

Rosters showing the personnel for floor captain, balcony captain, ushering, ticketing, concessions (main floor and mezzanine), coat room, and wine bar, and mezzanine concession, each one stapled to sheets for the five "callers" responsible for assembling the personnel. One blank sheet for each caller, showing the names of potential volunteers for that caller with columns in which the caller can mark the position, if any, the volunteer has accepted. Apparently the marks from these tables were then transferred to the caller's personnel sheet, and the sheets were compiled into the yellow roster used at the show itself. Shows include Titanic (8–9 January 2002), Lou Rowls (recte Rawls) (18–19 January 2002), Fort Wayne Philharmonic (26 January 2002), Stuart Little (27 January 2002), Travis Tritt (31 January 2002), WBNI Jazz Fest (1 February 2002), Little Bear Live (3 February 2002, matinee and evening shows), Annie Get Your Gun (7–8 February 2002), Meet Mr. Lincoln (12 February 2002), Philharmonic Valentine Pops (14–15 February 2002), Rugrats (17 February 2002), and Looking for Mr. Do-Right (19 February 2002)
